PREFACE

English in Public Places is intended for anyone fascinated by English language, from English students to the general reader with a passion for learning English. This book consists of several public places that we usually visit in our daily life, such as office, university, bank, hotel, library, and museum. We try our very best to compile every aspect of English skills related to the public places, including grammar focus, specific vocabularies, reading, speaking, and writing. We have designed this book to enrich the process of English learning and provide materials that could encourage you to learn new English words and terms.

In this chance, we would like to thank firstly to Allah ﷻ for His blessings and mercies, so that we can complete this book. Secondly, we hope that shalawat and salam will always be given to our prophet Muhammad ﷺ. Of course, we expect that this book will be useful for an academic development generally, and for English students specifically. Finally, we will be glad if everyone who has an English competence gives some suggestions and advice to improve and make this book better.
